

Position Paper on Digital Health from a Patient Perspective <sup>[1]</sup>

Education & Awareness <sup>[2]</sup>

The focus of the recent European Patient Innovation Summit was to discuss the uptake of potentially beneficial digital solutions that could empower patients to take control of their lives and overall well being. After discussing and voting, a series of recommendations were agreed such as ‘patients should be involved in all stages of the development of digital technology, aimed at empowering patients’.

These have now been written up as a position paper which can be accessed here <sup>[3]</sup>
